

AAMG Annual Conference

Why Museums Matter: The Teaching Museum Today

June 22-25, 2017
Eugene, Oregon

Our 4-day program expands our previous conference offering with varied formats, from short presentations to sessions, roundtables, posters, and workshops. We'll address the interests and challenges of academic museums and galleries as well as focus on issues affecting all types of museums. We have identified a number of tracks, some specific to our world of higher education.

Details about the conference, including the full program and registration information, can be found online: aamg-us.org

2016 AAMG Annual Conference, Washington, DC

Mission & History

The Association of Academic Museums and Galleries (AAMG) is the leading professional organization for academic museums, galleries, and collections. In recognition of the unique opportunities and challenges of its constituents, AAMG establishes and supports best practices, educational activities, and professional development that enable its member organizations to fulfill their educational missions.

Organized in 1980 as the Association of College and University Museums and Galleries (ACUMG), AAMG addresses issues that are relevant and unique to galleries and collections of all disciplines, including: anthropology, art, history, natural history, and science. Issues include governance, ethics, education and exhibitions, management, strategic planning, administrative support, collections, and professional programs.
