

AAMG Annual Conference

Audacious Ideas:
University Museums and Collections as
Change-Agents for a Better World

June 21-24, 2018
University of Miami

The Association of Academic Museums and Galleries (AAMG) and the International Council of Museum's Committee for University Museums and Collections
(UMAC) 2018 Joint Conference

This year's program addresses:

- New models of teaching across campus
- Strategies for equity and inclusion on and off campus
- Innovative transnational collaborations
- New ideas for advancing our mission as change-agents in society—locally, regionally, nationally, and internationally

We live in a dangerous, often unstable, and environmentally compromised world. What can academic museums, galleries, and collections do to remedy this situation? If we are dedicated to teaching and training new generations of students, to serving increasingly diverse communities, how do we make a positive difference? How do we know we are making that difference? Let's share great ideas and pressing concerns and learn and network with hundreds of global colleagues.

2017 AAMG Annual Conference, Eugene, OR

Mission & History

The Association of Academic Museums and Galleries (AAMG) is the leading professional organization for academic museums, galleries, and collections. In recognition of the unique opportunities and challenges of its constituents, AAMG establishes and supports best practices, educational activities, and professional development that enable its member organizations to fulfill their educational missions.

Organized in 1980 as the Association of College and University Museums and Galleries (ACUMG), AAMG addresses issues that are relevant and unique to galleries and collections of all disciplines, including: anthropology, art, history, natural history, and science. Issues include governance, ethics, education, exhibitions, strategic planning, administrative support, collections, and professional programs.
