

THANK YOU!

Dear Lulie Hart,

Thank you for contributing to the creation of the Task Force for the Protection of University Collections: A Ready Reference Guide for Academic Museum Professionals. With generous help from the Samuel H. Kress Foundation, we were able to produce a small print run and wanted to send along five hard copies to each of the contributors. Please find those copies enclosed here.

You can find the downloadable pdf at aamg-us.org/task-force/. Please feel free to share with your networks as you see fit. Should you need more hard copies, please reach out directly to me and I'd be happy to send you more as soon as possible.

Again, thank you for your contributions to this incredible resource.

Best,

Alexandra Chamberlain
